

REVOLUTION HANGS OVER BULGARIA

ITINERARY FOR HOOVER'S TRIP BEING CHANGED

Further Arrangements Are Announced—Hoover Gets Large Fish

ABOARD THE U. S. S. MARYLAND, off Cape San Lucas, Lower California, Nov. 22.—Further arrangements for President-Elect Hoover's South American goodwill tour were announced today. He expects to visit Havana and possibly Mexico, also Montevideo and Santo Domingo. Whatever ports he finally decides to include in his tour, Mr. Hoover will have a 10-day voyage aboard the U. S. S. Idaho, covering the distance from Rio de Janeiro to Havana. He will probably go to Mexico from Havana. It is almost certain he will not visit the Panama Canal Zone.

Mr. Hoover appeared on the deck of the Maryland wearing a chief yeoman's cap, white flannels and double-breasted blue coat. He was in fine spirits and has enjoyed the voyage so far. He visited the fishing grounds yesterday, 25 miles off the Cape, where he cast for big swum fish, tuna and jew fish.

The President-elect caught a dolphin, weighing 15 pounds and a five-pound Spanish mackerel in the 45 minutes he was engaged in deep sea fishing. He lost one large fish when his line fouled.

Electoral Procedure Changes Announced To State Governors

PITTSBURGH, Penn., Nov. 22.—James Burke, General Counsel of the Republican National Committee, has communicated to the Governors of all States, alterations made by Congress last May regarding electoral procedure.

The date the electors meet has been changed from the second Monday in January to the first Wednesday in January. As soon after the November election, the Governors of States shall send the Secretary of State, at Washington, certificates showing the names of the electors with the number of votes for each. The electors shall execute six certificates listing the Presidential and Vice-Presidential votes given them, and forwarding one to the President, by registered mail, two to the State Secretary of State, two to the United States Secretary of State and one held subject to the order of the President of the Senate.

Ketchikan Man, Wanted On Various Charges Is Arrested in Seattle

SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—M. Matson, formerly of Ketchikan, Alaska, is held here in custody of Federal officers for removal to Ketchikan where he is wanted on charges of operating a nuisance and other violation of Federal laws. He will be held pending arrival of formal papers.

Deputy U. S. Marshal C. V. Brown, of Petersburg, Alaska, on his way to the Federal building on Tuesday, after taking a prisoner to McNeil Island, met Matson walking down First Avenue and took him to the Federal building pending arrival of papers.

London Gold Shipment To U. S. Flows Steadily

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Shipments of gold to this country from London have continued so steadily, although in comparatively small amounts, since the middle of September, when the movement began, that Wall Street has expectations that the total imports will far exceed the estimated $25,000,000.

VESTRIS SAILORS RESCUED AT SEA

Among the survivors picked up by rescuing vessels off the Virginia Coast were (left to right): P. L. Jones, Tony Gladianos and George Hogg, all members of the crew. (Associated Press photo transmitted by telephone.)

"Good Samaritan" Must Go to Insane Asylum

UNION, Mo., Nov. 22.—The "Good Samaritan," Mrs. Bertha Gifford, who was always ready to "sit up" with the sick and who watched 18 persons die, writhing in paroxysms of pain caused, the state believes, by poison she administered, must spend the rest of her life in an insane asylum. The jury found her not guilty of the murder of Ed Brinley "on the sole ground she was insane at the time of the commission of the offense and has not recovered from insanity."

Coast Men Missing

Among the passengers of the unfortunate liner Vestris, whose names appeared in the list of missing when the vessel sank off the Virginia coast, were Norman K. Batten (top) and Earl Devore (center), Los Angeles automobile racing drivers, and Alfred C. B. Fletcher, San Francisco business man.

FATHER KILLS HIS DAUGHTER

Wife and Son Witness Frenzied Man Beat Girl to Death

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 22.—While his wife and son stood by, Theodore Oakvid, aged 44 years, beat his twelve-year-old daughter Sophie, to death with a hammer and then slashed his own throat with a razor. He is believed to have become suddenly insane.

A deputy sheriff who rushed to the small home, found Mrs. Oakvid and son Algid, aged 14, standing in the street screaming for help. Oakvid was found on the bedroom floor, blood streaming from a long cash in the throat. He was rushed to a hospital where it is said he probably will recover.

Beside the bed, near where the father lay, officers found three butcher knives.

The wife and son are badly shocked by the killing and the authorities have been unable to gain a clue as to the cause of the crime.

HALIBUT PRICES

SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—Seventy-eight thousand pounds of halibut were sold here yesterday at 10 and 14¢ cents.

The Clipper and Northern, from Alaska banks, brought in 23,000 and 30,000 pounds. Both vessels tied up here for the closed winter season.

SUNSHINE IN FLOOD AREAS

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 22.—Another day of sunshine brought additional relief in the flood area of Kansas with only the Neosho River continuing to rise in the southeastern part of the State. Fair weather is the forecast.

STEAMER IS GOING DOWN

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The Lloyds' End wireless station intercepted a message this morning saying the Greek steamer Virginia was sinking. The message was sent from the Cape Finisterre wireless station and said the SOS of the Virginia said: "Sinking 50 miles off Oporto, Portugal."

To Fight Liquor Places Catering to School Children

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The Board of Education, Police Department and Prohibition authorities have joined hands in an effort to rid the city of illicit liquor establishments catering to school children. The campaign was launched after the fatal shooting of a high school boy by the proprietor of one such place recently.

HATCHET MAN BEATEN DOWN OWN WEAPON

Negro Assailant Captured in Chicago — May Be Omaha Suspect

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—A negro hatchet man was beaten down here by his own axe and is held as a suspect in the Omaha hatchet slayings. The prisoner is confined in a hospital under close guard. He gives the name of Harry Gonska, aged 29. He was arrested yesterday after he robbed the home of Alfred Samuelson, city fireman. His description, even to the clothing, fitted that of the man sought.

Gonska carried a hatchet in his belt when he entered the Samuelson home. Fleeing, he was overtaken by Samuelson, who wrested the axe from him and struck Gonska several times, knocking him unconscious.

SEARCH IN OMAHA

OMAHA, Nov. 22.—Hundreds of police, reinforced by volunteers and bloodhounds, continue to search for Omaha's hatchet slayer.

One of five negroes under arrest will be taken before Mrs. Harold Strubling for identification. Mrs. Strubling is suffering from a blow on the head from the slayer's hatchet, but is rapidly recovering. Her husband, whose skull was crushed, while he lay sleeping in his bed, is still in a serious condition.

Bloodhounds failed to trace the hatchet man when taken to the Strubling house where the attack occurred.

W.C.T.U. PLANS CONTINUATION TOBACCO FIGHT

Educational Campaign to Be Undertaken—Other Battles Outlined

BOSTON, Nov. 22.—The National W. C. T. U. convention, in session here, has passed a resolution pledging itself to continue opposition to the tobacco habit.

Miss Ida Page, Director of the Narcotics Department, in presenting the resolution, said the feature of the education campaign planned will be a display of a poster depicting a young mother, with a babe and a cigarette in her hand and around her head a halo of tobacco smoke. She said the title of this picture will be: "Do you want that kind of a halo around American motherhood?"

The convention also pledged support of the Jones-Stalker bill, now in Congress, providing maximum penalties for Prohibition violations, and urged heavier penalties for drunken drivers, rum runners and moonshiners.

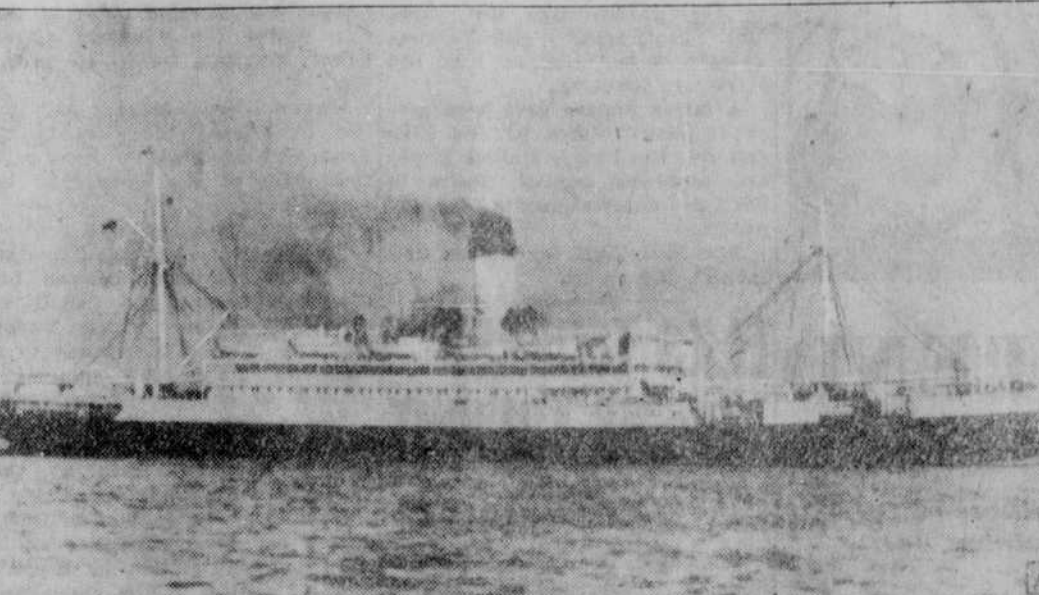

A resolution urging revision of the laws regulating film censorship was also passed.

The convention will adjourn today.

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING TO-DAY ONLY MORE DAYS TO CHRISTMAS 32

PASSENGERS AND CREW ABANDON SINKING LINER

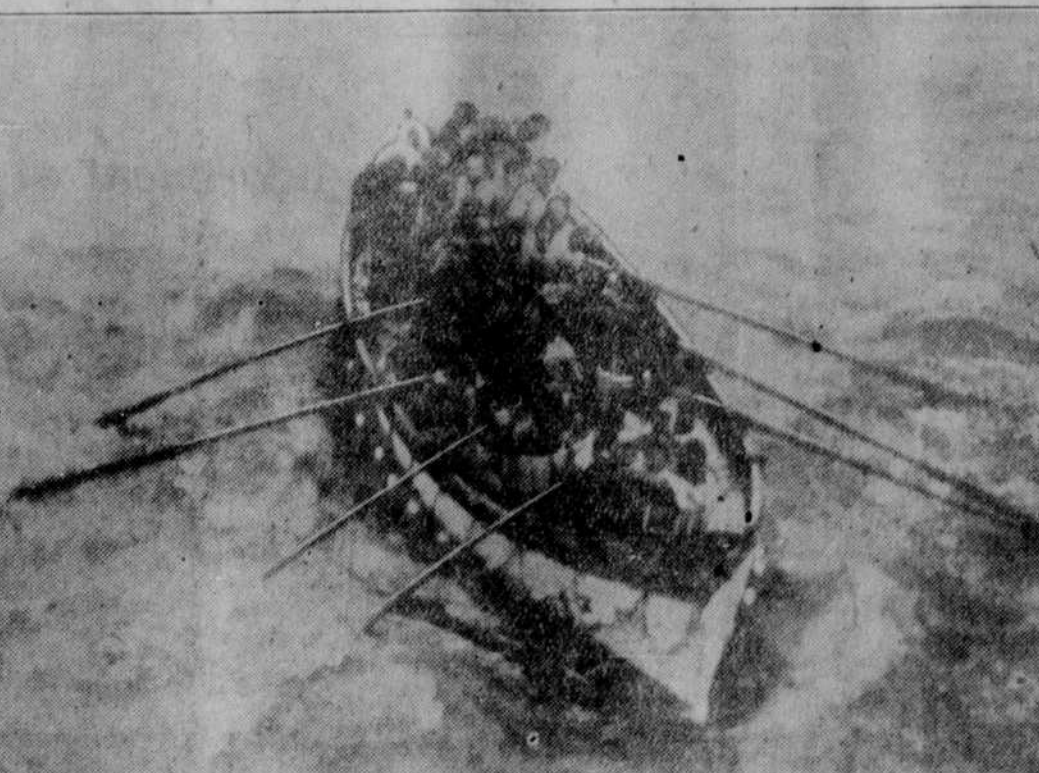

One hundred and forty passengers and 210 seamen aboard the S. S. Vestris, shown above, were forced to take to small boats in a storm 300 miles off Norfolk, Va., when the vessel began to list, and its doom appeared imminent. Picture transmitted by telephone from New York to San Francisco.

S. S. BERLIN RESCUING HAPLESS VESTRIS VICTIMS

Remarkable action photo showing officers of the liner Berlin throwing life preservers to a survivor of the S. S. Vestris. Note the man swimming toward the preservers. (Associated Press photo transmitted by telephone.)

LIFE BOAT LOAD OF VESTRIS PASSENGERS SAVED!

Close-up of one of the storm tossed lifeboats carrying survivors of the ill-fated liner Vestris. It is approaching the S. S. Berlin, whose officers effected the rescue. (Associated Press photo transmitted by telephone.)

Yukon Pioneers in Membership Drive

SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—The Alaska Yukon Pioneers are conducting a three months' membership campaign. The teams are captained by Sandy Frew and Bruce Slater, seeking honors for obtaining the most names. A banquet with the awarding of the loving cups will close the drive. The club will show pictures Stefansson took at Friday's meeting with a dance following.

Miss M. H. Keaton, a sister of Robert and Ted Keaton, returned from the south on the steamer Alaska.

Gno goes Keeper in Wash. Zoo

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—An African gnu gored Morris Phillips, keeper of the National Zoological Park while he was cleaning the cage yesterday. Despite the severe wounds, Phillips escaped from the cage. The gnu, who has horns 15 inches long, was given to the Zoo two years ago. It is known for its bad temper.

New Change in Government Of Italy

ROME, Nov. 22.—The Italian Chamber of Deputies, the last one elected under popular suffrage, met today for final sessions. Among the issues confronting the Chamber is a bill giving constitutional status to the Grand Council of Fascism. The Royal decree dissolving the Chamber is expected before the end of the year. Premier Mussolini is scheduled to make an important speech reviewing the work of the Fascist Party.

MICHAILOFF THREATENS TO MARCH ON SOFIA

Residents Bulgarian Capital Panic Stricken—Troops to Resist

REBEL LEADER IS HANGING OPPONENTS

Trees Along Roads of Petrich Bear Gruesome Bodies Michailoff's Enemies

VIENNA, Nov. 22.—Advices from Sofia state that Ivan Michailoff, Macedonian Revolutionary leader, is reported to be threatening to march on the Bulgarian Capital on short notice.

The population in Sofia is reported panic stricken. Public buildings are occupied by troops.

The streets are deserted.

Opponents Murdered Along the approaches to Petrich, which is Michailoff's stronghold, gruesome bodies of the rebel leader's murdered opponents are reported hanging from trees on both sides of the road. Initials of the Macedonian organization are branded on their chests.

Revolutionary leaders are said to be requisitioning everything they want from the terror stricken population whose numbers are being decimated by commitajis or irregulars.

Keep Off Streets.

Nobody dares go on the streets after 6 o'clock at night.

A meeting of the Bulgarian Cabinet has been summoned.

It is common knowledge, however, that a majority of the troops and officials are siding with Michailoff.

Four Year Revolution

The Revolutionary leader has been the prime mover in the internal Macedonian Revolutionary organization, an illegal association striving to free Macedonia by force of arms ever since the assassination in Vienna of Todor Alexandroff, four years ago.

Bitter Fued Develops

After the assassination in Sofia on July 7 of Gen. Alexander Protogeroff, leader of a rival Macedonian group, a bitter fued between the two organizations developed.

On October 13, Michailoff pronounced the death sentence upon all supporters of Protogeroff.

COURT LEAVES KETCHIKAN BY MONDAY'S BOAT

Judge Hill to Adjourn Special Term Monday and Go to Anchorage

The special Fall term of the U. S. District Court now in session at Ketchikan, will adjourn next Monday and Judge E. Coke Hill will leave at once for Seward en route to Anchorage to hold a term of court, according to telegraphic advices received today by U. S. Marshal Albert White. Judge Hill was transferred to this Division from the Third Division several weeks ago to clean up some of the business accumulated here since last May.

Conrad Carlson, who has been on trial at Ketchikan since early this week on a charge of robbery, was yesterday found not guilty. Only one or two more cases are to be tried by Judge Hill before he leaves for the west.

Manila Is Shaken By Quake Today

MANILA, Nov. 22.—An earthquake at 1 o'clock this morning aroused many persons who fled into the streets fearing their homes would tumble down over their heads. There was no damage.

Attorney General John Rustgard, who has been in San Francisco on legal business, accompanied by his wife, sailed this morning for Japan aboard the steamer Queen.